

really doesn't look all that good because it has got blocks, cement blocks. We don't need this any more. Let's go to something a little more efficient. Government is too big. The State Office Building would house us very nicely and we could fit in all the employees that we really need in this state by moving over there and then we could rent this place out. Well, that would be quite an attraction, wouldn't it? It would be very nice and we could get a lot of people, hold some conventions. I see a great potential here. It's reducing the scope of government, expanding the ability to bring in free enterprise. That is what we are talking about here and we are all having a great time as we go merrily down the road into the insanity of the budget cuts you are talking about. Now I know many of you don't agree with that and I don't want to chastise all of you. But I really think that you are missing the boat in terms of the values of this state when you start cutting out some of the things Senator Chambers is concerned about, some of the things I am concerned about and I think many of the people in this state are concerned about because these are important. These aren't a joke. These aren't just small matters that a few people out there care about. There are people out in this state that care a lot about what is happening down here. It is not 49 of us making decisions all alone. There is a million and a half people out there that care about Sheldon Art Gallery. They care about the aid to the dependent children. They care about the different things that we are all talking about and as we slowly set the sun in the sky we are all going to be doing some things I hope that we will look back on and feel pretty bad about. But, no, no, we are going to roll down the road and we are going to do what we are going to do and I understand that. But let's have a record vote and move forward as we merrily go down the road, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the closing on the Wesely amendment. The question is the adoption of the Wesely amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted that care to? Record, Mr. Clerk, please. Record vote has been asked for.

CLERK: (Microphone not activated)...voting aye. (Read the record vote as found on pages 2358-59 of the Legislative Journal.) 14 ayes, 27 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion fails. Do you have something
